

A detailed technical cutaway diagram of a wastewater treatment plant (ZST) unit. The diagram shows the internal components, including a pump assembly at the bottom, a vertical riser pipe with a float valve, and a control panel on top. The unit is mounted on a wooden base. The components are numbered 1 through 21, corresponding to the legend provided in the adjacent table.